

+ MY CELLAR

TASTED BY JANE ANSON - 3 NOVEMBER 2021

Château Larcis Ducasse St Emilion Grand Cru Premier Grand Cru Classé 2019

Extreme in all the right ways - in the verticality, the salinity, the density, the forward motion and the stretching out through the palate. But it is also mouthwatering and drinkable, with a ton of blueberry and raspberry puree fruits alongside still austere tannins. Love it. Owned by the Gratiot-Attmane family, made by the Nicolas Thienpont team. 38.5hl/ha yield.
