Top Ten Wines of 2023

Wines in this article (Expand)

The below list is a selection of the top wines tasted over the past 12 months and reviewed at JebDunnuck.com. The selection is based on a combination of quality, value, availability, and a little bit of Wow Factor. It was made by scrolling through thousands of reviews and painstakingly cutting the list to these 100 wines.

While the list is led by Bordeaux's incredible 2020s as well as California's stunning 2021s from the Central Coast, it includes wines from throughout the world including Napa, Sonoma, Oregon, Washington, the Rhône Valley, Champagne, Piedmont, and Tuscany. The list is not a grouping of the top-rated new releases and contains wines – and producers – who merit special attention.

While we try to select wines currently available in the market, that's not always possible. Every producer on this list is worth your time and money. If a wine on this list is not available, by all means, try a different wine from the same producer. At a minimum, keep that producer on your radar for the future. Prices are either from release prices from the estates or pulled from average retail prices in the United States.

As with all Top 100 lists, this is an entirely subjective endeavor, and every wine on this list could be replaced with a different wine. Nevertheless, we think these are the most exciting wines at JebDunnuck.com for 2023!
